Text of Wilson Protest to British Shows U. S. Demands Satisfaction.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—(Special.)—The protest to the British government, which was made public today, shows that the United States is satisfied with the British policy on which the protest was based.

CALLS IT BRITISH TREASON

Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—(Special.)—The direct charges that Great Britain had framed up contraband lists with the idea of depriving Germany of materials for munitions of war were made in the protest today by Senator Walsh of Montana. Walsh bitterly attacked the British policy of searching for American and other neutral ships on which cargoes of copper were being transported abroad.

"It is scarcely to be doubted that these lists," Senator Walsh said, "are being compiled in order to accomplish the economic ruin of Germany rather than because of the fact that the commodities included in them will be used in Germany in the prosecution of the war."

"Neutral rights will be respected in a shadow of their former selves if these lists eventually prevail the rules proposed. The bare fact that goods found in order, makes them subject to seizure, and unless the owner can prove to the satisfaction of a hostile court that their destination was innocent, they are subject to confiscation."

Neutrals May Sell Products

"A state of war imposes no obligation upon neutral nations to cease trading with the belligerents, nor to abstain from neutrality on the part of the former to permit their citizens to sell either to the governments at war or to their citizens any commodities, even such as are to be used directly in prosecuting the war, like arms and other destructive agencies."

"It will be the duty of our government, as I conceive it will be recognized as a duty by every government among the family of nations outside of Great Britain, when the question presented by these measures are being asked, to bend every effort to maintain the integrity of the law governing neutral trade as it has been developed through three centuries of struggle for freedom."

"The British government might well avoid a course calculated to make it appear as an offensive act. There is no sentiment of hostility or animosity toward Great Britain, nor in speaking cases of no consequence in the annals of international legislation. God grant that our relations may always remain friendly."

Specific Cases Already Cited

High officials of the Washington government said tonight that no specific cases had been included in the present note because those had been dealt with at considerable length in a voluminous correspondence covering a period of five months, and that the British foreign office was familiar with the detailed position of the United States in each case.

It is possible, however, that a brief summary of some of the typical cases will be made public in a few days by the state department.

The note itself was distributed tonight to members of the diplomatic corps. The preparation of the document was begun a month ago in the state department, and from time to time drafts of it were sent to the White House to President Wilson, who requests corrections of it and revised it in detail.

It was learned from high officials that it was not alone the desire for careful preparation and study which delayed the sending of the document, but the belief of the government that each day would bring from the British government, in response to America's numerous protests in specific cases, a note saying definitely conditions would be improved.

AS BRITAIN KEEPS PROTEST

BRITAIN, Dec. 31.—In the absence of any striking battle news today all the newspapers of Britain print in prominent places dispatches dealing with the note of protest sent by the United States to Great Britain regarding the detention and searching of American ships.

The London Advertiser's report of the incident declares that Great Britain will be glad to grant all American principles demands, since it does not make of the United States an opponent who could cut off a great part of England's own imports.

YUAN SHI-KAI CINCHES JOB

Runs Through Legislation Whereby He Holds the Presidency of China for Life.

(BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.) PEKING, Dec. 31.—President Yuan Shi Kai has obtained the passage of legislation by the national assembly which assumes him the presidency for life and allows him to nominate his successor.

or required under the principle of self-preservation.

"The government of the United States does not intend at this time to discuss the propriety of including certain articles in the list of contraband, but it is not prepared to accept of a list of contraband which has been framed by its majesty. Open to objection as some of these seem to this government, the chief ground of protest is the treatment of cargoes of both classes of articles when found in neutral ports."

"Articles listed as absolute contraband shipped from the United States and consigned to neutral countries, have been seized and detained on the ground that the countries to which they were destined have not prohibited the exportation of such articles. Unlawful as such detentions are, in the opinion of this government, American exporters are further perplexed by the apparent intention of the British authorities in applying their own rules to neutral cargoes."

"For example, a shipment of copper from this country to a specified consignee in Sweden was detained because, as stated by Great Britain, Sweden had placed no embargo on copper."

"On the other hand, Italy not only prohibited the export of copper, but as this government is informed, put in force a decree that shipments to Italian consignees or to order, which arrive in ports of Italy cannot be exported or transhipped. The only exception Italy makes is of copper which passes through that country in transit to another country."

"In spite of these decrees, however, the British foreign office has thus far declined to affirm that copper shipments consigned to Italy will not be molested on the high seas."

Seizures are so numerous and delays so prolonged that exporters are afraid to send their copper to Italy, steamship exporters decline to accept it, and insurers refuse to issue policies upon it.

"In a word, a legitimate trade is being greatly impaired through uncertainty as to the treatment which it may expect at the hands of the British authorities."

"We feel that we are abundantly justified in asking for information as to the manner in which the British government proposes to carry out the policy which they have adopted, in order that we may determine the steps necessary to protect our citizens, engaged in foreign trade, in their rights and from the serious losses to which they are liable through ignorance of the hazards to which their cargoes are exposed."

"In the case of conditional contraband the policy of Great Britain appears to be equally unjustified by the established rules of international conduct. As evidence of this, attention is directed to the fact that a number of the American cargoes which have been seized consist of foodstuffs and other articles of common use in all countries which are so-called relative contraband."

"In spite of the presumption of innocent use because destined to neutral territory, the British authorities made these seizures and detentions without, so far as we are informed, being in possession of facts which warranted a reasonable belief that the shipments had in reality a belligerent destination as that term is used in international law."

"More suspicion is not evidence, and doubts should be resolved in favor of neutral commerce, not against it."

"The effect upon trade in these articles between neutral nations resulting from interrupted voyages and detained cargoes is not entirely cured by reimbursement of the owners for the damages which they have suffered after investigation has failed to establish an enemy destination."

"The injury to American commerce with neutral countries as a whole through the hazard of the enterprise and the repeated diversion of goods from established markets."

"It also appears that cargoes of this character have been seized by the British authorities because of a belief that, though not contraband, they were ultimately great the territory of the enemies of Great Britain."

"Yet this belief is frequently reduced to a mere fear, in view of the cargoes which have been decreed by the neutral countries, to which they are destined, on the articles comprising the cargoes."

"That a consignment 'to order' of articles listed as conditional contraband and shipped to a neutral port rates a lyal presumption of enemy destination appears to be directly contrary to the decision previously held by Great Britain and thus stated by Lord Salisbury during the South African war:

"Foodstuffs, though having a hostile destination, can be considered as contraband of war only if they are for the enemy. It is not sufficient that they are capable of being so used. It must be shown that this was in fact their destination at the time of their seizure."

"With this statement, as to conditional contraband, the views of this government are in entire accord, and upon this historic doctrine, consistently maintained by Great Britain, when a belligerent, as well as a neutral, American exporters were entitled to rely."

"The government of the United States readily admits the full right of a belligerent to visit and search neutral ships and to detain them on the high seas for contraband."

"The government of the United States also readily admits the right of a belligerent to search neutral ships and to detain them on the high seas for contraband."

AUSTRIAN RULER SAD AND BROKEN

Writer Declares Emperor Keeps to Palace; Treated as a Child.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

(UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) VIENNA, Dec. 31.—(Correspondence.)—Only palace and pits are seen by the aged emperor in the minds of Austro-Hungarians. In his court he is treated almost like a child. Most of his days he spends in his favorite room in the palace. The monarch is broken only by an occasional visitor.

One of the favorite pastimes of the emperor now on sale shows him seated at a table, his head bowed in his hands, his face invisible, a picture of helplessness and age. The picture was taken when the emperor was weeping and his grief was a public one.

Story About the Emperor. The story of it is told by the Viennese in their coffee houses. During the early days of the war the emperor took great pleasure in visiting the various hospitals and talking with the wounded. One day he stopped at the bedside of a wounded man.

"My good man can I do anything for you?" he asked.

The soldier did not answer; he did not even turn his head.

A nurse noticing the incident rushed up to relieve the evident embarrassment of the ruler.

"His majesty is speaking to you," he said to the soldier and the emperor repeated his question.

"Yes," said the man, almost shrieking, "you can get a bullet through my head."

Both of his arms and his legs have been shot away and he is suffering greatly," explained the nurse.

The shock of the incident was too great for the nerves of the aged monarch. He fell into a chair and sobbed. Tears flowed down his cheeks. Attendants gently led him to his carriage and took him back to the palace. He has not asked to visit the hospital since.

Emperor Breaks Down. Coffee house gossip tells the following about the emperor:

An artist was admitted to the palace. "What is going on?" the emperor demanded, and then he continued complainingly:

"They tell me day after day that we have won a victory and that we have taken so many prisoners and so many cannon, but in spite of these things we don't seem to get ahead. I cannot understand it."

FEAR UPRIISING OF FILIPINOS; TROOPS GUARD

American Soldiers Held Ready for Action at Manila.

BIG REVOLT PLANNED.

BULLETIN.

(By Cable to the Chicago Tribune.)
MANILA, Dec. 31.—All of the American troops in Fort McKinley and 75 per cent of the troops in Manila are held in their barracks tonight in readiness for any possible trouble. A few families of the frightened natives in the suburbs have taken refuge in Manila.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—(Special.)—All promises of independence at some future time may be stricken from the Jones Philippine self-government bill by the senate committee as a result of the testimony of Dean C. Worcester before the committee today.

Mr. Worcester was formerly a member of the Philippine commission, and as such served as secretary for the interior for the islands. He told the committee that the reports of recent uprisings in the islands were undoubtedly correct, and only a sample of what might be expected if the pending measure passed.

"Anarchy and bloodshed," Mr. Worcester said, "are sure to follow this measure's passage. They, in turn, will be followed by foreign intervention and seizure of the islands by some power other than the United States if the United States does not resume its command."

Factions Ready to Fight.
Mr. Worcester said a military oligarchy would be set up in Manila shortly after the evacuation of the American army and governing officers, and that this oligarchy would characterize its reign by a season of violence unprecedented in history. He asserted that in the islands it is not known today that two parties would struggle for control as soon as America surrendered it, and that which ever one obtained it would maintain it by force of arms.

Mr. Worcester said that there is a strong sentiment in the islands among the natives against independence at this time.

Says Beval: Was Widespread.
Members of the committee asked Mr. Worcester what he thought about the recent uprisings in the islands. He replied that they were undoubtedly widespread, but that the more prominent leaders had refrained from connecting themselves with the insurgents at this time.

Mr. Worcester read into the record a cablegram which he received today from a Manila newspaper man in reply to one asking for information. It follows: "The general commanding at Corregidor denies the rumor regarding the disarming of the Philippine militia. A mob in Botanical garden was scattered by the police before the time set for the uprising. They arrested twenty bold men. The revolt movement is wide and well organized and Ricarte is connected with it."

"Drastic measures were required to prevent it from spreading. It is generally believed the disturbance is being instigated by the widespread idea of government weakness. The thought that action will not be suppressed, and by a worse interpretation of the promises of the administration of circulation by politicians among the ignorant masses."

Foreigners Are Alarmed.
"All foreigners are apprehensive and a great many have applied for dramatic permits. It is impossible to do anything to corroborate many facts, as the witnesses are forbidden to give information and the government will not allow us to see the documents seized by the army. The uprising was insignificant in its accomplishment, but is dangerous on account of the potential agitation of the lowest classes."

"The officials have arrested men in Manila, but the main leaders have not been approached. Communications were secured indicating that the Americans were to be attacked and their property was to be confiscated or destroyed. There is no evidence that any property owning natives are involved and there were absolutely no Americans connected with the uprising."

During his testimony Mr. Worcester earnestly appealed to the committee to amend the Jones measure so as to prevent any aggression upon the non-Christian tribes by the Christian tribes.

BANISHED MEMBER SUES TO OUST LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Trust Complaint Against St. Louis Board Filed in Circuit Court at Belleville, Ill., by S. H. Henry.

Belleville, Ill., Dec. 31.—A quo warranto suit asking that the St. Louis live stock exchange be ousted was filed in the circuit court today by the attorney general of Illinois. It is charged that the exchange is a trust in restraint of trade. The writ was made returnable on Jan. 11. Elmer H. Henry, who brings the charges, says he once had a lucrative business at the yards, but was blacklisted by the exchange and his business there was ruined. Mr. Henry now has a civil suit for $250,000 damages pending against the exchange.

On the Job as New Year Arrives.

KING GEORGE INSTITUTES A NEW WAR DECORATION.

Military Cross Second Only to Victoria
Cross Now—One Hundred Already Got the Honor.

REFLECTION, contentment, out of
dow joy, and blissful hilarity were contrasting phases of Chicago's welcome to the New Year.
The reflective phase was furnished by graybeards of the Oak Park
"Borrowed Time" club, to which only men who have passed the scripturally allotted "three score and ten" years are eligible. The club met in Seville institute and held a memorial meeting to commemorate the passing of seven score members who were claimed by death in 1914.
Following a prayer service at the Memorial Park Congregational church a sleeping party of Christmas Eve was held at the club which lasted until after the bells had welcomed the New Year.
Over at the Davenport hotel there was New Year contentment among the well warmed occupants of its up-to-date "flap."

about 200 yards of German trenches fell

Berlin Official Statement.
BERLIN, Dec. 31.—The official statement given out in Berlin this afternoon reads as follows:

"In the eastern sector of the war year-today passed comparatively quiet on the coast. The enemy directed his fire on Westlands and destroyed parts of certain houses there, but without causing any military damage."

"An entire French company was annihilated when it blew up their line near the Alger farm."

"The enemy's artillery systematically destroyed houses after house in the village of Steinbach, which is in our possession. Our losses are slight."

BRITISH TO FORCE SERVICE IN SOUTH AFRICAN FIELD.

No Effort Will Be Made to Rely Upon Volunteers Against the Germans.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—A telegram received here today by Reuters' Telegram company from Pretoria, the seat of government of the Union of South Africa, says:

"It is officially announced that the government intends to commandeer men for service in German southwest Africa and in the Union of South Africa, as the situation cannot be adequately met by depending on the volunteer recruits."

A dispatch from Cape Town says that Walsh bay, on the southwest coast of Africa, was recaptured Christmas day without opposition, by a strong British force.

THIRTY WARSHIPS OF ALLIES ATTACK PORT IN AUSTRIA

French and British Craft Seek to Destroy Pola, Naval Base of Their Enemy.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 31.—A private dispatch received here from Berlin says that over thirty French and British warships are bombarding Pola, the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic, and also the seaport of Rovigno, fifteen miles away.
Recent reports have indicated activity near Pola. Several days ago a French submarine went into the harbor of Pola,
but did not return.

A dispatch received in London last night described how another submarine had been successful in torpedoing the Austrian dreadnaught Viribus Unitis, and other messages have indicated that an Anglo-French attack would not come as a surprise.

Bush Pola Defense Works.
[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]
VIENNA, via Rome, Dec. 31.—Defensive preparations have been rushed at Pola and also at Trieste, where another attack is feared.

Prince Conrad von Hohenlohe, governor of Trieste, has transferred the government island and carried away all the archives.

British Seize Big Island.
MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 31.—
British forces have occupied Bougain-ville, the largest of the Solomon islands.
It was announced here today that the British flag had been hoisted over the island on Dec. 9.

The Solomon islands lie to the southeast of the Bismarck archipelago. On Sept.
11 the British Pacific fleet occupied Herbertshohe, the seat of government of the Bismarck archipelago and of those members of the Solomon group under German control, including Bougainville.

Mine Sinks Danish Vessel.
LONDON, Jan. 1, 1915.—The Danish
steamer M. C. Holm, from Savannah, Dec. 1, for Christians, laden with cotton,
struck a mine off Flamborough head,
England, and sank fifteen minutes later.
All the members of the crew escaped in lifeboats. They narrowly escaped injury from fragments of the mine casing.

Flamborough head is on the North sea in the County of York. It was off here in 1770 that Paul Jones won his most famous naval victory.
Much excitement was caused at Portsmouth today when a number of British army helmets floated ashore. It later was discovered that the helmets had been thrown over from a recently arrived transport.

Germana Pair to Prisoners.
Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—Reporting upon his personal inspection of German military defection camps, Commander Anderson, former senior of the state department, has informed the department that he found no cases of intervention of prisoners of war.

FRENCH AND FOE IN HARD BATTLE FOR STEINBACH

Terrific Fight in Progress at Nearly All Points on Long Western Front.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—A terrific battle was in progress today along almost the whole of the western battle front.

In Alsace the French and Germans engaged in house to house fighting for the village of Steinbach. The Paris official statement says the French held one-half the village, but the Berlin statement says the whole place remained in possession of the Germans.

The French statement claims gains for the allies at various points along the front, but the Berlin announcement says an entire French company was annihilated on the northern end of the line;
French attacks south of Reims were repulsed; in the Argonne the Germans occupied several French trenches and captured 230 prisoners, and their artillery broke down French attacks in Upper Alsace.

French Official Statement.

PARIS, Dec. 31.—The following official communication was issued tonight:
"The French army has gained ground on the left bank of the Meuse, and immediately repulsed."

"The positions which our troops have gained by hand to hand fighting in Steinbach have been kept and we continue to attack those of the enemy."

"In Champagne, to the west of the Alger farm, which is north of Reims, in the sector of Reims, the enemy during the night blew up two of our trenches and then delivered against these positions an attack, which our men repulsed."

"To the north of Mesnil-Les-Buisson we occupied certain portions on the enemy's second line of defense. In this same region, at a point to the north of the farm of Bennesour, we also occupied some trenches. The enemy delivered a counter attack, but he was driven back."

"In the Argonne, in the vicinity of the village of...

WILSON TO TAKE STUMP IN REPLY TO HIS CRITICS

"Swing Around Circle" Will Start with Address at Indianapolis Jan. 8.

ONE A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. President Wilson has decided to accept the challenge of his critics and defend his administration in speeches to be delivered in various parts of the country. The first important address will be before the Indiana Democratic club at Indianapolis on Jan. 8. This club will observe "Jackson day."

The president has had under advisement for several days an invitation to attend this dinner, along with other invitations from other parts of the country, and today he notified Senator Kern that he would go to Indiana.

Other speeches will follow the Indianapolis deliverance. The president will "swing around the circle" when he visits the "Pittsburgh-Pittsburgh" expedition and there will be many speeches. Chicago is certain to be visited.

Friends Wanted Action. Hereafter the president has remained closer to the White House than any of his predecessors have done in the early part of their terms. Some of his political followers have complained because the president has not responded more frequently to invitations to make public addresses and to meet the people.

Mr. Wilson's closest friends explain that he was busy with constructive policies, and now that this work is practically completed, the president feels free. It is said to go out and defend the program his party has carried out under his personal direction.

The president's appearance on the stump is not without its significance to politicians here, in view of the activity of Speaker Clark's friends, who make no concealment of their intention to put forward the speaker as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president in 1916. Missouri will be heard from on speaker Clark's candidacy within a short time unless some of the speaker's friends in Washington are misinformed. Just what form the Clark movement will take has not been disclosed, but that something will be doing soon is strongly hinted at.

Bears Too Heavy a Burden. Everything in the atmosphere around the White House and in the administration circle suggests that the president is preparing to defend his administration and to accept the responsibility of leading his party in the national campaign.

The possibility that the president may decline to enter into a scramble for the nomination with Speaker Clark and other party leaders is freely conceded by his friends.

MOOSE MAY JOIN G. O. P. CAUCUS ON SPEAKERSHIP

McCormick and Hicks Reported Not Averse to an Alliance.

Election of the speaker of the Illinois house may depend upon the course pursued by the two Progressive members, Medill McCormick of Chicago and H. B. Hicks of Rockford.

According to a well authenticated report, they have no serious objections to entering the Republican caucus if they are invited properly and joining in naming a candidate for speaker and otherwise participating in the framing of the Republican legislative policy.

The full political significance of such possible action carries with it the idea that, for the first time since the 1912 smashup, there would be a real working agreement between elected Republicans and Progressives in Illinois that might go far toward complete reconciliation in preparation for the 1916 campaign.

Might Hammer "Wets" Program. As an immediate consequence of such a program, it was suggested last night that the three or four ultra-wet Republicans are talking about staying away from the caucus on Tuesday would be unable to stop the caucus program, because the two Progressives would make seventy-seven votes, the required constitutional majority.

No one candidate seems to be anywhere near the speakership prize. Edward D. Shurtliff has not yet announced his candidacy, but is likely to do so at any time. Neither Homer J. Tice nor Walter M. Pringle, the two leading candidates thus far announced, has secured pledges from any considerable number of members. The new men particularly are backward about committing themselves.

Democrats Get Busy Today. The first real move by the Democrats will be started today at Springfield, when they will gather from all over the state for the annual governor's reception, and the state administration policy is likely to be mapped out before midnight.

The attitude of the state senate particularly is to be checked up with a view to ascertaining the degree of trouble Gov. Duane will have in getting his recess appointments confirmed and his program for the coming two years in state affairs digested.

Czar, Kaiser, and King as They Appear at the Front.

CZAR NICHOLAS AT THE FRONT—Though not as warlike as some of his uncles and cousins, the archdukes of Russia, the czar loses no opportunity to meet the soldiers that are undergoing the hardships of the great campaign in Poland. His cosacks are his favorite troops and the picture shows the pleasure he feels at meeting them. These hardy fighters of the steppes have done some great fighting in East Prussia, Poland and Galicia. Latest reports place the czar at the front with his commander-in-chief, Archduke Nicholas, at Warsaw. (Photo Copyright 1914: By Underwood & Underwood.)

KAISER WILHELM IN FIELD DRESS—This latest picture of the German emperor was taken at the front shortly before his recent illness, which kept him confined to his bed for some time. In his war uniform with sword and side arms, his helmet covered with canvas, he looks hard and fit, as if the arduous duties of the campaign had left their impress on him. His hair shows quite gray around the temples. (Photo Copyright 1914: By New York Times Company.)

KING GEORGE OF ENGLAND AT THE FRONT IN FRANCE—Not to be outdone by his royal cousins, the king of England crossed the channel on a tour of inspection of his army fighting with the allies in Flanders and northern France. The camera man snapped him as he was greeting some of the East India troops at a field hospital camp. One of the wounded soldiers is explaining how his arm was injured in the recent fighting. (Photo Copyright 1914: By Underwood & Underwood.)

ACTIVITY ON WESTERN FRONT—Violent fighting by sea, land and air has been in progress for the last few days on the western battle front. The map above shows some of the points at which the action was most active. At Zeebrugge (1) the allied French and British squadrons have bombarded the naval station which the Germans are seeking to repair. Westende (2) also has been bombarded by the allies. The little town of St. George, in Flanders (3), has been occupied by the allies and their position there strengthened. Dunkirk (4) has been subjected to violent bomb attacks from German airships. In upper Alsace (5) the allies have been carrying on a vigorous offensive which culminated in the hand to hand fighting for the village of St. Etienne. The French claim to have gained a foothold there.

YOUTHS CLINGING TO JAMMED CAR HURT BY TRUCK

Brushed from Steps in Rush to Reach Jobs After Trolley Delay.

Severe injury came to two young men yesterday because of a street car jammed to the steps with straphangers. One of the victims is in a hospital.

A wagon broke down in front of a south-bound Ashland street car when it reached Twenty-third street shortly after 7 o'clock. A delay of about seven minutes which resulted caused a block of six other cars. The first car, No. 611, was crowded at Twenty-third street. At Twenty-second street it was jammed from platform to platform.

Two young men, both 20 years old and employed in the railroad department of the city, found they would be late if they did not take the first car. They were Chris Volinski of 1234 South Harding street and William Smith of 1234 South Harding street. They found a footstool on the steps of the car as it started up at Twenty-second street, and held to the hand rails.

When the car started, the two young men, both 20 years old and employed in the railroad department of the city, found they would be late if they did not take the first car. They were Chris Volinski of 1234 South Harding street and William Smith of 1234 South Harding street. They found a footstool on the steps of the car as it started up at Twenty-second street, and held to the hand rails.

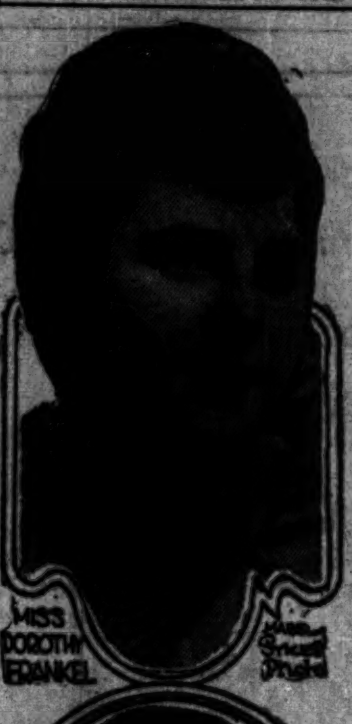

The car was going at a good rate of speed and the two young men had just reached into their pockets for their tickets when they were brushed from the car steps by the protruding wheels of the truck.

Smith sustained a bad fracture of the pelvis or hip bone, according to Dr. John H. Long. He was taken by the Human Street Police to the West side hospital, where he will be confined for two months. It is feared. One of Volinski's ribs was fractured and he was injured about the right shoulder. Both were unconscious when the motor started. Volinski was taken home, but was too ill to see a physician who called at his residence.

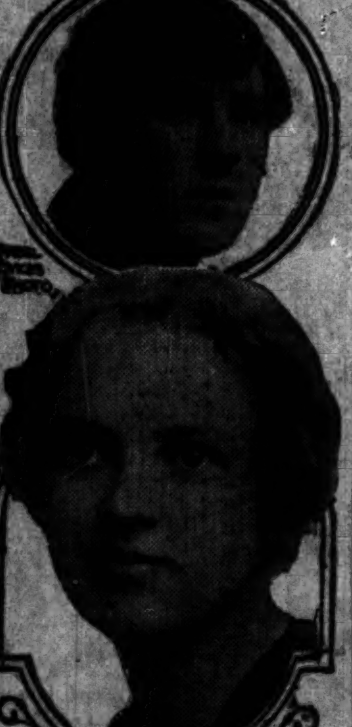

Volinski's father, John H. Long, of 1234 South Harding street, was on the car and told of the accident.

The breakdown of the wagon delayed the car so that many persons tried to crowd on the first car. The car was so full there was no room anywhere and the boys had to hang to the rails. The driver of the car, who was on duty at the time, was not injured.

creased only 1,200,000, as compared with the previous year. In other words, 1,200,000 fewer people rode on the street cars than during the same month in 1913.

Total Decrease, $487,000.

Last month, as already stated, the drop in cash fares and in total rides was even greater.

The total loss in cash revenue to the street car company for the five months is approximately $487,000.

But the public is not interested in the finances of the street railway corporation, except so far as the city's 55 percent of the net profits is concerned. And that, under present conditions, is a profit on a shoestring.

The real point of interest is how far the street railway companies have yielded to the temptation to economize by laying off cars and consequently causing the present vastly increased overcrowding.

During the reduction, officials of the company, while complaining that their business has fallen off, refuse to admit that there has been any reduction in the number of cars seats furnished. Thus on the day before Christmas this year they state that there were only twelve fewer cars in service than on Dec. 24, 1913. And since there were a good many small cars in use last year, which have now been supplanted by larger cars, the actual accommodations were really greater.

An independent investigation, which is not yet completed, indicates, so far as it has gone, that the number of cars in service is almost the same as last year.

Meanwhile it seems probable that a considerable part of the present congestion and unusual crowding may have resulted from the almost complete shutting off of cars which have been supplanted during the last three or four months—and without any sufficient notice to the public.

If some method could be devised by which people could be notified when the car line, which they are accustomed to see changes its route through the downtown district, it seems certain that a lot of unnecessary waiting and delay, with consequent overcrowding, could be avoided.

It is also likely that some part of the re-routing may have been done in such a way as to put the patrons of the street cars to undue inconvenience.

With 50,000 fewer passengers a day and with only a few less cars running it is difficult otherwise to account for the fact that the service is worse at the present time than it has ever been before.

DYING WOMAN PROTECTS MAN WHO CAUSED POISONING

Baby Dead and Member of Prominent Southern Family in Danger, but She Claims Him of Bigamy.

New York, Dec. 31.—Because she could not legally be married and so legitimates her children, "Mrs. Ida S. Rogers" took mercury and gave some to her babies. One of the children is dead and the mother and her baby boy are dying in a hospital here. Today she makes statement, in view of the death of her baby, Rogers, of the allegation of bigamy and explained why she wanted to die.

"I have known Lerly all my life," she said. "For four years I have been in the place of a wife to him. I knew he was married to Miss Caroline Giddings, sister of Prof. Giddings of Columbia. She in her turn learned of our relation two years ago. She had no children. I had two."

She agreed to divorce Mr. Rogers. He had to fulfill certain conditions and recently completed them at a great sacrifice. But then Mrs. Rogers refused to keep her pact. She would not get the divorce and we could not marry and so legitimates our darling babies."

"Mrs. Rogers" real name was withheld by Dr. W. Grant Hague, who made her statement public. He said that she is a member of a well known southern family and that she did not desire to bring disgrace upon it.

R. P. Shepherd Tells Illinois Federation Marriage Selection Already Made Just Of.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 31.—The teaching of sex hygiene in the public schools was severely scored at the closing meeting of the Illinois State Teachers' association by R. P. Shepherd of Chicago of the Illinois Sunday School association.

"The youth of this nation does not know what the sanctity of the marriage relation is," continued Mr. Shepherd. "Young people have been led so long to think lightly about it and to see it made life and of cheap jokes that they fall into the fallacy of believing it to be a thing of the consequences, which can be escaped easily in the divorce courts."

The association elected Gilbert P. Nardie of Danville president.

CHICAGO'S PARCEL POST DOUBLES DURING THE YEAR

Total Receipts of Postoffice, However, Show Falling Off of $1,500,000 Over Those of 1913.

Receipts of the postoffice department in Chicago for the year 1914 indicated a decrease of almost $1,500,000 over those of the preceding year, according to the annual report issued yesterday by Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell.

The total 1914 receipts are $34,978,710 as compared with $36,477,241.80 in 1913. An enormous increase, however, is noted in the parcel post. In 1914, $3,048,431 worth of outgoing parcel post was handled by the Chicago postoffice, or twice the amount handled in 1913.

This year the department paid out to domestic and foreign money orders $118,000,000. This is an increase of almost $200,000 over the amount paid last year.

Henry C. Lytton on 1914 Business Conditions

Despite the European war, and its consequent general effect upon American trade, The Hub's business for 1914 was fully up to my expectations, and I am profoundly grateful to the people of Chicago for the stellar part they have played in our success.

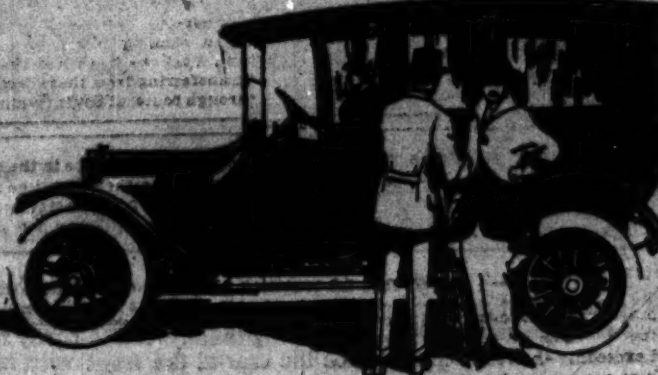

The fact that our business kept up so satisfactorily, notwithstanding the dull trade all over the country, I am pleased to attribute to The Hub's irrevocable policy of fair, square dealing and "honest values," which are bound to reap their profit under all circumstances, war or no war.

The war, incidentally, has created a peculiar condition commercially, which is destined to accrue to the benefit of the rank and file of our citizenship. I want you to watch the daily papers, particularly today and the next few days, for Hub announcements "which are bound to electrify you all," and are a direct result of the European agitation.

"Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good," and we propose to prove the virtue of the adage in a manner that will enlist your keenest appreciation and prove still further the great purchasing power of this institution and its tremendous money saving power. I beg to wish you all a happy New Year.

The Safety of Shaw Cabs Is a Chicago Proverb—

They are safe because the drivers are graduates—because a device on the motor will stop it if the speed exceeds 20 miles per hour—because the drivers are careful of women and children entrusted to their care—all of these because these driving positions at Shaw's are much sought after and treasured because our drivers receive the highest salaries in America and have the best working conditions—because the cabs are fumigated and aired every night—because each one has a thorough overhauling once a month.

Shaw cabs are limousines with heavy axles, best springs and luxurious furnishings.

There are no cabs like them in New York, London, Paris or Berlin.

LIVES PERILED AT RUSH HOURS, SAY REALTY MEN

Board Files Third Complaint, Attacking Service on the Broadway Line.

The Cook county real estate board welcomed the New Year with another salvo in support of the Ten Teners' movement for the relief of straphangers.

Attorney William M. Lawton, representing the real estate organization, celebrated New Year's eve by dispatching to the public utilities commission at Springfield a formal petition of complaint charging the Chicago Railway company with endangering the lives of passengers by its conduct in overcrowding cars used on the Broadway line.

That the third petition sponsored by the board in its plan to investigate and compel the Chicago Railway company to eliminate the overcrowding of cars on the Broadway line in the city that is found inasmuch as it is a danger to the lives of passengers who must cling to the rear platform at the risk of being killed by passing vehicles.

Four Cars Pass Muster.

The specific complaint, the petition says, is that "on Dec. 30, 1914, at Broadway and Dearborn boulevard, for the one hour from 8:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. there were thirty-eight Broadway cars and no more going north on this line, and that with the exception of four cars, each car had its seats occupied with passengers, and also passengers standing in the aisle and vestibule, and that twenty-four of the cars were so crowded that passengers were compelled to stand on steps of rear platforms and endanger their health and their lives."

The complaint was signed by Attorney Lawton and by Charles Ringer, chairman of the public utilities committee of the real estate board.

"The third petition that we have filed with the state public utilities commission is only the opening salute of our campaign," said Mr. Lawton. "We expect to maintain an average of one petition of complaint a day until every traction line in the city of Chicago has been canvassed by our investigators and its condition of service ascertained."

Center About Terminals.

"Bad traction conditions are of great moment to the real estate interests when it develops that on account of poor traction service, business is lost, and the price of the property is lowered," said Mr. Lawton. "The trend of such a movement is to depopulate the sections between the terminals and downtown."

"This is due to the fact that people get tired of living where the only cars that pass through their neighborhoods are loaded ones—often without standing room. The situation is of deep and widespread concern to the real estate interests. For this reason, the real estate board is determined that we will get tired and abandon the struggle."

In the meantime, Chairman Ringer of the real estate board's committee, addressed letters to more than 100 important business men, and civic organizations, urging them to attend the straphanger's meeting of the board in the Louis XVI. banquet room of the Hotel Sherman at 12:30 o'clock next Tuesday.

Ferry Assails Arnold.

Monroe Ferry, commissioner of public works, issued a statement charging Eugene Blon J. Arnold with merely posing as a friend of the straphanger, "when in a matter of fact, he (Mr. Arnold) has blocked every move made by the department of public works, Transportation Supervisor Kelker, and the commission on local transportation, to get relief of street car service."

Mr. Arnold occasionally refers to the board's letter of Nov. 25, 1914, as proof of his good faith, "but," said Mr. Ferry, "the letter of itself, discredits Mr. Arnold. It was part of a report made by the board as to the probable expenditures and receipts of the surface lines, provided they were operated as one property. The reference to service was mentioned to show the basis upon which they had arrived at the conclusion that the city should maintain the surface lines, provided they were operated as one property."

Clas Arnold letter.

"The letter read as follows: 'In order to determine the probable future operating expenses it has been necessary to define a measure of service and use this measure of service in determining the necessary car service and consequently the number of cars required for that service. We have based our conclusions on the assumption that during the normal hour periods, under normal conditions of operation, a seat will be provided for every passenger on the'

Rudeness to Women and Loitering Crews Among Scores of Complaints by Straphangers.

IRREGULAR schedules and street cars jammed to suffocation, saying drivers are forced to stand in the cars, and the part of car crews and charges of general inefficiency continued to be the basis of scores of complaints made to the City's Straphangers' Bureau yesterday.

The flood of letters continued in a steady stream. The charges contained in them indicated the measures added to have been taken by the surface lines to improve the service have had little effect.

Humiliates a Woman.

Some of the complaints received during the day read in part as follows:

Mrs. A. G. Williams of 1121 North Avondale avenue—While coming from the hospital on Dec. 24, about 3 p. m., I got on a Harrison street car at Roosevelt street, going north, and having only a large bill, I offered the conductor ($3.50) five pennies for my fare. He refused to accept them, then snatched the money from me and told me to get off. He said, 'We don't accept pennies,' but I refused to get off. An old man heard the argument and offered me a 5-cent piece, which I gave the conductor. When leaving the car at Western avenue, he laughed at me, as if I were a fool, and said, 'I suppose you will report me.'

William H. Ward of 235 South Wabash avenue—Last night I reached Wabash avenue and Jackson boulevard at 5:30. Seven Cottage Grove cars passed me, all filled to the limit, three of them refusing to open the door. I then left and walked a block north, where three more cars passed me. I finally got the fourth, which had seventy-six fares rung up, after waiting eighteen minutes.

Seymour Walton of 112 South Michigan boulevard—This morning, Dec. 30, I was on a Broadway and Dearborn car, through route No. 1. The car would not stop, although there were but half a dozen persons standing in it. A man, a lady, and I had to wait in the cold for six minutes for the next, after we had already waited ten minutes.

Solo. Houghton of 2125 West Fullerton avenue—I left a Fullerton car at Northport, in the vain hope of transferring to a north-bound Dearborn car. After waiting for exactly twenty-five minutes, there was no sign of a car, and in desperation I boarded another car bound Fullerton avenue, and after explaining matters to the conductor I asked to be taken to Halsted street. In the hope of trying my luck on that line, I was finally informed of a car. I held on to the side of the car, and after waiting for five minutes, it did not stop. After fifteen minutes at Halsted street for a bus that shall pass any given time on any route during the rush hour, the number of passengers passing such point on the cars during the same period, and that during the rush hour period, sufficient cars shall pass any given point to permit a car still in the street to carry all passengers that pass to the same point during the same period without the need of exceeding any number of passengers per car, and that such cars shall have a seating capacity of not less than forty passengers.

Rush Hour Not Defined.

"You will note that the letter does not say what the rush hour is. It refers to normal conditions."

If you say that seventy people may ride in a car or on a street car, straphangers, unless you can seat that number of people, and we know that the Chicago cars cannot seat that number of people. The letter defines the quality and character of the service, but does not in any way define how many should be in the car.

For that reason, the committee passed up the idea of having a certain number of people in a car still in the street, and conditions. Rush hours on the line might be rush hours on another line.

If Mr. Arnold were in good faith he would have passed favorably on the recommendations made by Transportation Supervisor Kelker of this department to the committee on local transportation to permit the cars to be used by the transportation committee and passed by the city council, thus becoming ordinances. They are city ordinances, still Mr. Arnold refuses to recognize them."

"BOOZE GOT ME," Francis explained last February when the Chicago Tribune in their publication of the pathetic story of his downfall said "A few years since he was reputed to be a 'BIG BOOZE'."

Straphangers! Check Cars in This Way.

Select a point of observation and check the numbers of the cars of a given route, traveling in a given direction, that pass you within a period of two hours. Note the number of each car, the line it belongs to, and the number of people you see standing without available seats.

This means some of your time, but systematic checking of this sort is necessary for the most efficient presentation of the facts before the public utilities commission. If you want conditions bettered, do it today, and send the results to "STRAPHANGERS' DEPT., THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE."

A. C. and was greeted with the words, "Can't get on here, there's another one!"

Alfred P. Burgess of 4785 North Monticello avenue—Next to your Good Fellow movement, your straphanger campaign should open the eyes of the people who use the surface or elevated cars. The service on the Bowmanville line is abominable. Monday morning at 7:15 car No. 141, arriving at Lawrence avenue, was packed to suffocation before the car reached Belmont. There were ninety-two paid admissions, not counting waiters. This morning car 141, arriving at 7:20, had 104 paid fares at Irving Park boulevard and 115 at Illinois street. I have been a constant reader of THE TRIBUNE for twenty years or more, and I am sure your campaign will bring about the results necessary for the benefit of the public at large, especially those who work for a living.

Henry Robinson of 1120 North Lincoln street—Can nothing be done to improve the service on the Roosevelt line? It is necessary to wait fifteen or twenty minutes at Halsted and Fullerton for a northbound Roosevelt car, and then when we are part way up the line the conductor calls out: "Take the car ahead." This happens repeatedly. Dozens of families are going to work from my neighborhood on account of the car service.

John Rathbone of Morgan Park—More power to your pen in your fight for better car service. Ever since the conductor began running cars from the city to Morgan Park we have had the privilege of transferring from these cars to the No. 8 through route at Seventy-ninth and Halsted streets. Without notice to the public, the company gave orders to conductors not to accept transfers except at Archer avenue and Halsted street. After the transfers were refused and we refused to pay another fare, we were put off the car.

Samuel Reike of 1212 South Spaulding avenue—There are too many instances of irregular service. Day in and out on the Ogden line that it would take a large book to state all the cases. Sometimes the cars are five and six in a row, and all crowded to their fullest capacity.

Harry I. Baker of 187 West Washington street—If you are awarding prizes for good street car service I recommend the Taylor street line. You can always find at least two empty cars waiting at the end of the line, where the car crews spend their time in the corner when playing cards, and, of course, you can not expect them to end a game abruptly just that freezing passengers may arrive at their destination.

A. B. Holden of 1910 Harris Trust building—This is a sore morning. I boarded a North avenue car at North Clark avenue at about 7:10 this morning, car 1870, conductor No. 8070. The glass in the front door was entirely out, and all the way down not only the cold wind but also the stink of urine of children became smoke flooded the car. I was not in an enviable frame of mind when I reached Clark street.

Robert Jarvis, maker of trophies, Union stockyards—The people who have business in the stockyards and who are obliged to use the Thirty-ninth street line to ride in the oldest, smallest, and dirtiest cars in the city. They are all ways crowded to suffocation during the rush hours. There seems to be no supervision of the line except by the conductors. In the morning at times going west, the conductor will discharge the passengers at Halsted street, without warning and no car following in sight. Going east at night, when no car is in sight, the cars will be returned before the end of the line, leaving a crowd of persons waiting at Clark street.

John W. Reimer of 122 Federal street—On Halsted street car No. 1510, conductor No. 2608, arriving at Taylor street at 10:20 a. m., there was one lady and two men on the rear platform, and two ladies and twenty-six men standing in the car. There were nine persons running up. Happy New Year with success to your undertaking.

Flower Briggs of 1401 Winthrop avenue—This morning, just as it was morning about 9:45, some twenty persons waited in the cold outside a Halsted-Grand car at Broadway for five minutes before the conductor, No. 1206, opened the door and allowed us to enter and get warm. There seems to be no reason why the doors should not be opened as soon as the car is switched and ready to start.

Recommendations made by Transportation Supervisor Kelker of this department to the committee on local transportation to permit the cars to be used by the transportation committee and passed by the city council, thus becoming ordinances. They are city ordinances, still Mr. Arnold refuses to recognize them."

PHILADELPHIA EDITOR ENDS WORK ON PUBLIC LEDGER.

George W. Ochs Quits Post as Result of Differences with President Cyrus H. K. Curtis.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 31.—Announcement was made tonight of the resignation of George W. Ochs as editor of the Public Ledger. He retains a considerable holding in the underlying securities of the newspaper.

Mr. Ochs has not determined what his future activities will be, but may join the New York Times company, of which he is a director. He is a brother of Andrew Ochs, president of the Times.

In the formal announcement which the Public Ledger will publish tomorrow Cyrus H. K. Curtis, president of the Public Ledger company, states the resignation is due to "an entirely amicable but irreconcilable difference of views" between himself and Mr. Ochs regarding the publication of the paper, and that he accepted the resignation with much regret.

LIFE SAVING STATION CLOSES

Capt. Carland Reports 254 Persons Rescued from Lake in Nine Months.

Two hundred and fifty-four persons rescued, property to the estimated value of $250,000 recovered, and fourteen bodies taken from the lake—this comprised the work of Capt. Charles Carland and his life savers since March 13, 1914, according to the captain's annual report which he prepared yesterday to forward to Washington, D. C. The life saving station at the mouth of the river was closed at midnight until March 15, 1915, except for the captain and one life saver who will remain on duty for emergency work. Volunteers will be called for if occasion should arise.

PROF. BROWN OF PRINCETON RAPS PEACE EVANGELS

"Because Military Preparedness Brought War, Unpreparedness Will Not Halt It."

Prof. Philip Marshall Brown of Princeton university took a rap at the pacifists yesterday in his address before the opening of political scientists at the Congress hotel. The time for disarmament has not come, says Prof. Brown.

"Peace advocates can't see things as they are," he submits. "It is an illusory presumption to argue that because military preparedness brought about war, military unpreparedness will prevent it."

The political scientists elected Prof. Ernst Freund of the University of Chicago as their president during the day.

Disarmament Talk Useless. "It would seem obvious," Prof. Brown said, "that it is useless to talk of disarmament before an international conference of states, because of the principle of balance of power, in fact of all the precise rights of states, secondly, to provide a compact, general body of law accepted by all; and, third, to insure the effective administration and enforcement of law by a common executive and judiciary."

Diplomacy, arbitration, and war itself have failed to determine the fundamental rights of states according to Prof. Brown. He suggested that the solution of the problem of determining these rights lies in laying the foundations of international law on "sound, concrete realities."

"International law," he said, "is not a thing, but it is a thing which exists." "It calls for valiant defenders, but it demands that they abandon all abstractness and deal with realities."

Tips on International Law. Prof. Brown believes that international law must recognize interdependence of states, racial integrity, the inequality in the power of states, and the folly of discussing disarmament until an international organization with executive power has been created.

In making over the map of Europe, the members of the peace congress which is to follow the present war must recognize the principle of balance of power, in fact of all the precise rights of states, secondly, to provide a compact, general body of law accepted by all; and, third, to insure the effective administration and enforcement of law by a common executive and judiciary."

"The principle has proved not only false but a menace to the existence of the big as well as the small nation," he said. "The cynically mischievous results of the congress of Berlin and Vienna and the condition of Austria-Hungary, the festering disease center of Europe, illustrate my point."

Some Nations Not Sovereign. Prof. Charles C. Floyd of Northwestern university pointed out that some nations are not entirely sovereign. He cited both China and Mexico in their relations with the United States.

The afternoon session was devoted to the election of officers and the reports of committees. Jesse Macy of Grinnell, Bernard Moses of the University of California, and W. B. Munroe of Harvard university were named vice presidents and A. L. Jones of the University of Wisconsin secretary-treasurer.

"The Wisconsin idea" was indirectly attacked in the discussions of the report of the committee on practical training for public service. Prof. C. A. McCarthy of the University of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee, took on all comers in a defense of the "idea."

The American Historical association also held the final meeting. Cincinnati was chosen for the next meeting. The historians elected Prof. H. Morse Stephens of the University of California president, George L. Burr and Worcester Ford vice president, Waldo Leland secretary, and Clarence Bowen treasurer.

Bluecoat's Daughter to Wed Clothier.

MISS MARGARET HART

At a progressive dinner to be given tomorrow night by the girls of the Phi Sigma sorority, announcement will be made of the engagement of one of their number. She is Miss Margaret Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hart of 222 Edgecomb place.

The father of the bride to be is a policeman. Miss Hart is to wed Leo Galtzki Jr. of 2618 Robey street, a clothing manufacturer.

BRIDE CHARGES SLANDER IN SUIT

Mrs. Emily Lebrecht Asks $25,000 Damages from Mrs. E. C. Mathieson.

ANNULMENT PENDING.

Young Mrs. Emily Lebrecht put a new twist in the marital mixup of Arthur Lebrecht, gem merchant, by filing the promise of a $25,000 damage suit yesterday. Mrs. E. C. Mathieson, widow of a wealthy hardware merchant, and her son Walter are defendants. The charge, according to Mrs. Lebrecht's lawyer, is slander.

Mrs. Lebrecht, it is said, will attempt to prove that Mrs. Mathieson, in whose home Lebrecht formerly lived, used every means in her power after the marriage to get him to return.

The Lebrechts were married on Nov. 17, four days later the bridegroom filed a bill to have the marriage annulled. He asserted he had been on a three-day tour and was so far "under the weather" that he had no memory of the wedding.

In her answer the bride set forth that Lebrecht had professed to be initiated with her, that he had proposed to her several times in the four months before the wedding, and that he was not intoxicated when he made her Mrs. Lebrecht.

Insurance Policy Wrecks His Home, Husband Says.

After Twenty-five Years of Wedded Bliss Valentine Dolas Asks Wife Wishes Him Dead.

Matrimonial bliss—twenty-five years of it—without even a temperamental squabble was the lot of Valentine Dolas of 618 Buffalo avenue, he explained to Municipal Judge Trude yesterday.

"But my happiness ceased a month ago, Judge, when my wife got me insured for $10,000," Dolas added. "She's been paying the premiums herself. Since then I'm worse than dead than alive. When I sit down to breakfast she looks at me and says: 'I wish you were dead.' At supper she says the same."

Mrs. Dolas said her husband abused her. The judge continued the case for five days on the promise of Dolas to try to bring about a reconciliation.

$5,000 Added to Police Fund. David C. Greger, custodian of the police department, turned over $5,000 to the police pension fund yesterday. The money is proceeds of the auction sale of lost and stolen goods recovered by the police.

Clerks and customers in this and near by stores were routed when smoke filled the building. Two alarms were turned in. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

WILSON PUSHES BUTTON; OPENS SAN DIEGO FAIR

Visitors from All Parts of the World Have a Part in Midnight Ceremony.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 1, 1915.—(Special.)—While thousands of visitors from all parts of the east and west thronged the grounds, the Panama-California exposition here was formally opened to the world at midnight, when President Wilson, in Washington, 3,000 miles away, pressed the electric button to signal the dedication of the first all-year exposition in history.

The whole southwest turned out to witness the event in the opening ceremony. From Oregon came Gov. Oswald West; from Utah came Gov. Spry with a delegation of state and city officials; from all parts of the west and from the south-west in particular thousands made their way to San Diego.

Ambled a crowd of 8,000 on hand. One of the largest delegations came from Imperial Valley, which sent 500 automobiles, carrying more than 2,000 people. These automobiles left the valley Wednesday morning, arriving early the same night.

Striking with him a number of state officers from Sacramento, Gov. Hiram Johnson represented California at the opening. William G. McAdoo, secretary of the United States treasury and son-in-law of President Wilson, was the chief representative's personal selection to represent him at the celebration.

There were present also representatives of foreign powers, among them Count Del Valle de Salazar, who was appointed by King Alfonso XIII. of Spain to act as his majesty's personal representative, and the Japanese consulate from various east cities.

Fireworks Open Exposition.

Fireworks and illuminations accompanied the opening of the gates early last evening when the public was first admitted to the grounds of the completed exposition. For three hours the visitors strolled about the grounds and wandered at the fair city of old Spain, which San Diego has built on the mesa above the harbor of the sea.

At 11:30 the formal ceremony of opening the gates of the exposition to the world began with a speech by Lyman J. Gage of this city, former secretary of the United States treasury.

Promptly at midnight the exercises ended and the flash of an electric spark carried over the wires from President Wilson in Washington announcing in the world the formal opening of the exposition, which will remain open until another New Year's eve rolls around.

Fair Sets Two Precedents.

Setting a new precedent in exposition history, the San Diego exposition opened with every building completed. On Dec. 3 Director of Works Allen presented the finished structures to the exposition directors.

There was another precedent set which was not unique, but which was just as important. The San Diego exposition opened without a cent of debt and the visitor at the grounds during 1915 will not see the collectors waiting at the gates for a percentage of the receipts, an unpleasant feature of expositions held in the past.

Today will be devoted to military and naval parades. The great naval parade will be held in March, when President Wilson arrives with the battleship fleet, visiting San Diego as the first port of call north of the canal.

DANNENBERG ENDS SERVICE.

Morale Inspector Quits Work for City and Will Take Up Private Investigations.

W. C. Dannenberg ended his service as morale inspector for the city yesterday. The former morale inspector was chief secretary of the Hydrocraft company at Michigan City during the day. He also is a director of the company. The company manufactures speed, 400 horsepower boats. In addition Mr. Dannenberg will take up confidential work for several corporations and law firms which he represented before he was appointed morale inspector. His offices were opened yesterday in the Harris street building.

DONOVAN

It was 47 per cent of all the advertising printed by all the morning newspapers of Chicago.

It was within 4,959.27 columns of as much advertising as was printed by the other Chicago morning papers combined, even though the total of these other papers includes about 4,000 columns of advertising that THE TRIBUNE refuses.

The average paid circulation of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE for the month of December, 1914, was:

Daily . . . . . 320,412
Sunday . . . . . 535,735

From its first circulation statement under the Federal Laws for the six months ending September 30, 1912, to the present time, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE shows an unbroken record of steady increase that surpasses that of any other newspaper in the world.

The daily increase during this period was 99,912 or 45 per cent.

The Sunday increase during this period was 231,410 or 76 per cent.

Less than one per cent of all the daily newspapers in the United States and Canada have a total circulation as great as this increase of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE in this comparatively short period.

To our readers and our advertisers who, in appreciation of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE'S service, have given their support and patronage, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

GOTHAM AMERICAN LEAGUE CLUB SOLD TO RUPPERT

SOLD AT LAST!
YES, YANKEES CHANGE HANDS

Ruppert and Huston Finally Clinch Sale of
New York Club.

DONOVAN NAMED BOSS

New York, Dec. 31.—[Special.]—Col. Jacob Ruppert Jr. and Capt. Tillinghast Huston finally purchased the New York American league baseball club from Frank J. Farrell, William S. Devery et al. at the Hotel Wolcott this afternoon. This deal, which had hung over for several weeks, was officially announced by President Dan Johnson at exactly 4:18 p. m.

The transfer has been effected (it was Dan Johnson's representative who spoke) and every one is perfectly satisfied. Col. Ruppert will act as president of the club under the new regime. Capt. Huston will serve as secretary and treasurer. "Wild Bill" Donovan will manage. The other officials have not as yet been selected.

Price May Handle Business. The foregoing completed the official statement. But other facts may be read between the lines. It leaked out that James E. Price will be coerced into accepting a position as business manager of the new combine. Several other minor officials also must be filled.

Mr. Johnson asserted that the new owners were prepared to provide for the local team a home in keeping with the traditional glory of New York. This statement was borne out by both Ruppert and Huston. The new partners said they would have a plant of their own before another two years.

But there also was a different story. This was to the effect that the New Yorks would continue to utilize the very choice convenience of the Polo grounds. It was said that President Harry N. Hempstead for a term of years on the Brush stadium proposition.

"Got My Price," Says Farrell. Frank J. Farrell, the retiring head of the local club said: "I gained my point, for I got my price. While I do not care to say the total amount paid for the franchise and players, every one knows the price I asked was $500,000. You know I am a good sticker and I generally get what I want even if I have to wait for it."

Certainly I am most sorry to retire from the game which I love. But I feel that I have been well repaid for all the efforts and disappointments. The very least I can hope, in view of the glad New Year, is that under Messrs. Ruppert and Huston the club will win a world's championship in 1915.

"We are not at liberty at this time to announce the terms of sale," said the American league president, "but I can heartily assure you that Col. Ruppert and Capt. Huston own every share of stock of the club."

Capt. Huston said that Manager Bill Donovan would be given every encouragement to work out the salvation of the local team.

Donovan Star as Manager. Donovan's managerial career has been even more brilliant than that of the picking triumphs in the big show. He took hold of the Providence club of the International league and in less than a year converted a champion out of a hapless team. Donovan is a real thinker. In every respect he is a modern. His task here is difficult but his friends believe he will do it.

Col. Ruppert found all inquiries over to Capt. Huston. The captain said: "I am not prepared to say how much we paid for the Yankees, but Col. Ruppert is as well satisfied as I am myself that we will be able to bring a pennant-winning team to the Buffalo Polo field next season. The last season we were together in this city. It is a big undertaking, but I feel confident we can accomplish it. Bill Donovan is to be our manager and we have the greatest confidence in his ability."

Bigger to Go to Yankees. "The deal just put through does not include any players other than are now the club's property. We are going to purchase players and among these we have already secured are Pipp and High of Detroit, Reber, Boston, Miller, St. Louis, and Joe Berger, Chicago. In addition to these, several other clubs in the league have promised to help us out and we will go into the market for the best that money can buy."

Next year we will play throughout the season on the Polo grounds," added Capt. Huston, "but we hope that in 1915 we will have a new and convenient park of our own. Several sites have been spoken of, but none of them is included in the purchase we made today."

It was reported one of the first moves by the new owners would be the reclaiming of Ray Caldwell, who jumped from the Yankees to the Buffalo Polo field next season. The last announcement of Frank Farrell was that all but three players have signed contracts for next season. One of the three mentioned men is Reber, Pittsburgh, and Farrell says he is ready to sign at any time. He refused to give out the names of the other two.

Profits of Giants Large. The statement of the annual profits of the National Amusement company, controlling the Giants, for three years, were given out today as follows:

1912—Gross, $40,000; net, $10,000; 1913—Gross, $45,000; net, $12,000; 1914—Gross, $50,000; net, $15,000.

MARSANS' CASE DUE SOON: TO BE HEARD IN ST. LOUIS. St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 31.—The suit of the Cincinnati Nationals to restrain Amanda Marsans from playing with the St. Louis Browns will be heard in the United States District court here between Jan. 18 and 20. This Marsans' attorney, Mr. J. M. Marsans, has been granted by Judge Dyer.

Marsans, who is at the home in Cuba, June, to the local Nationals in the Cincinnati Nationals of the opening of last year's baseball season. A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Dyer in the federal court at St. Paul and the case sent to St. Louis for trial.

The decision in this case is eagerly awaited by those interested in the Cincinnati Nationals. A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Dyer in the federal court at St. Paul and the case sent to St. Louis for trial.

CALLERS.

PITCHER BENTON SOUGHT BY CUBS

Manager Roger May Land Him If Successful in Three Corned Trade.

Reports from Cincinnati yesterday indicated that a three cornered trade with the Cubs, Reds, and Cardinals involved may be put through instead of the swap contemplated by the Cubs and Cardinals.

Miller Huggins, boss of the Cards, was in the Reds city in conference with Manager Huggins of the Reds, but the talk went down without any announcement of a deal.

When Brenahan was in Cincinnati earlier in the week he was out on a list of part, and left the list for the consideration of Huggins. It is likely that Huggins may accept one of the propositions submitted by Roger in order to secure material for a second trade with St. Louis.

Roger Wants Pitcher Benton. "Rule" Benton, the southpaw who has been a source of considerable worry to the Cubs in the past, is the pitcher Brenahan was after when he found he had no chance of securing him from the Cardinals. The Cardinals are willing to trade him for a second baseman. Roger expects to lose George (Elbert) Mauer via the trade route, and is anxious to secure another left hander to replace him.

By securing Benton, Roger would get over an exceptionally clever deal. The "Rule" always gives the Cubs a hard argument when he appears there, and his addition to the local roster would save the left handed hitters on the west side club a great deal of worry in the course of a season.

Neither Brenahan nor President Thomas has any definite knowledge of the outcome of the Benton trade. The Cardinals are waiting for their dealings with the Reds, but both declared they would enter into any sort of a combination that might give a player who would strengthen their club.

Phelan Sure of His Job. Art Phelan, the "boy scout" of the Cub aggregation, thinks he has solved the second baseman problem for Manager Pless. In a letter received by President Thomas yesterday Phelan declared he expected to play around the outside of the "Boys" with the Cardinals. The Cardinals are willing to trade him for a second baseman. Roger expects to lose George (Elbert) Mauer via the trade route, and is anxious to secure another left hander to replace him.

It was reported one of the first moves by the new owners would be the reclaiming of Ray Caldwell, who jumped from the Yankees to the Buffalo Polo field next season. The last announcement of Frank Farrell was that all but three players have signed contracts for next season. One of the three mentioned men is Reber, Pittsburgh, and Farrell says he is ready to sign at any time. He refused to give out the names of the other two.

FINANCES OF C. W. SOMERS PLACED IN BANKERS' HANDS. Cleveland, O., Dec. 31.—[Special.]—The financial affairs of Charles W. Somers, owner of the Cleveland Naps and who holds a controlling interest in the New Orleans Waterbury, Conn., Petroleum, Ore., and Cleveland Gas, are being handled by a committee of Cleveland, Buffalo, and Erie bankers today in an effort to bring about a settlement.

It is believed that the baseball holdings, with the exception of the "Boys" interest in the Cleveland Naps, will have to be mortgaged. The present business depression, unfortunate real estate investments in Cleveland and Milwaukee, and the closing of a number of mines to which the baseball holdings were intended to give the cause of the bankers' action today.

Recessed liabilities are given at $1,500,000. Creditors will be asked to accept one year's interest on the bonds, and a 10 percent cash payment on the principal. This will consolidate the claims and give the necessary time to liquidate the debts without undue mortgaging of the assets.

TWO SENATORS IN MIXUPS. Washington, D. C., Dec. 31.—Two members of the Washington Americans had an evening's party at the Hotel Hamilton. The first, Senator Charles McNary, was mistaken for the second, Senator Charles McNary. The first, Senator Charles McNary, was mistaken for the second, Senator Charles McNary.

AMATEURSTOBOX AT KENOSHA FOR CENTRAL TITLES

Sanction for National A. A. U. Almost Assured; Holdouts This Month.

Central Amateur Athletic union boxers will begin their national title fights in Kenosha this month. The sanction from the National A. A. U. has been practically assured, and all that remains is the setting of the dates. According to Harry Forbes, who will be in charge of the local bouts, the unionists probably will begin about the middle of this month and may be carried over two weeks.

Peter Foraker, who will promote the bouts in the Wisconsin city, already has been assured an entry list of nearly fifty youngsters. Bouts in all classes from bantamweight to heavyweight will be staged. Not only will Chicago be well represented, but Kenosha, Milwaukee, Waukegan, Racine, Madison, and other nearby points will send young fighters.

According to Forbes, the idea is to develop boxers from among the amateur ranks and to create added interest in the pugilistic sport in these parts. In time it is the hope of the promoters to place amateur pugilism on the same plane as other top-notch amateur athletics.

Willard in Fast Workout. Jean Willard cut loose with tremendous speed in his five round workout at Forster gymnasium yesterday. Opposed to the applicant for Jack Johnson's crown were Jack Moran and Jack Hodson. The former battled three rounds and the latter two.

For the first time Willard showed what he is capable of against the champion battler. He went after his training partners with considerable spirit, using his left hand often more than he ever did in his previous bouts. Behind all his southpaw hooks and swings there was plenty of force. Throughout the five rounds he was the aggressor, giving his partners no time to rest.

Willard will leave this morning with Manager Tom Jones for New York. He will arrive in the Bronx city Wednesday morning and will go to training for morning practice for a week, after which a two weeks' tour of one night stands will be the program before the fighter and manager reach El Paso, Tex. When they arrive in the Texas city Willard will go to training to put on the finishing touches for his bout with Johnson in Gen. Villa's casino at Juarez, Mex.

McGoorty Batters Sparring Mate. Eddie McGoorty, who battles Billy Murray in Milwaukee a week from today, also had a last round sparring session with "Boss" McGowan yesterday. McGoorty was the aggressor, giving his partner no time to rest.

Mike Snyder and Manager White left for Chicago yesterday morning. Snyder will fight "Gott" Dolg this afternoon. Snyder, who has risen rapidly from the amateur ranks, is a real fighter. He has a powerful right hand and a quick left. He is a real fighter.

Visitors Downed by Superior Offense and Strong Defense.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 31.—[Special.]—The University of Chicago basketball team found the opposition against the Detroit Y. M. C. A. quintet too strong tonight and succumbed to a 24 to 10 score. At half time the Wolverines led, 10 to 5.

33rd January sale of tub frocks, negligé and lingerie

an event for which we obtained many wonderful values in the European war zone

Extremely fortunate that arrangements for this sale began last June—the early start enabled us to complete our special transactions with European manufacturers before the war so seriously hindered trans-Atlantic business. And then, as soon as war began, many foreign lingerie makers were flooded with "cancellations." This gave us the chance to effect savings never before possible—and of rare concern is the fact that our representatives were about the only ones "on the ground" at this time, which, of course, is another way, a very forceful way, of making it plain that Mandel's, this January, comes close to being the chief lingerie store in America. FOREIGN NEEDS REPORTED LARGE English Advances Claim 200,000,000 Bn More Wheat Needed from U. S.

GRAIN MARKS STRONG.

Wheat prices were influenced yesterday by reports of large sales for export, by the bullish estimates of European requirements during the remainder of the crop year, and by the further hardening of cash prices, with continued light offerings from the country. Initial prices were a little higher, but this bulge was followed by a sharp break, after which the market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.

The Armour company had a late cable from Liverpool from a leading English miller saying Europe would need 200,000,000 bu more wheat from this country before next July. There was some profit taking, which caused a little recession from the best figures of the day.

Trade Unusually Active. The trade both in futures and in cash grain was unusually active for one day before New Year. Under all the conditions the holiday season the volume of business is dull, especially in the cash markets, but this year there has been practically no letup in the foreign demand, and the speculative trade has been good. Local loans sold out freely on Wednesday and yesterday there was still further liquidation.

The cheap wheat was taken by J. Roschman, Archer, and Chapin, and thereafter offerings were not at all burdensome. Late buyers were Keusch-Schwartz, Barrell, and commission houses. Wagner, Logan-Bryan, and wife houses were free sellers at 11.20 and over. Cash sales by Chicago buyers were 475,000 bu at relatively the highest price on the crop. Total sales in all positions were 1,500,000 bu. Kansas City reported mill bidding equal to 11.25c Kansas City for wheat in the country.

Highest Point for Cash Wheat. No. 3 hard winter wheat, U. S. grade, May crop, the highest point of the year, and there was no increase in the offerings from the country. Receipts were 21,157 bu, with 14,745 bu inspected yesterday. Primary arrivals were 1,130,000 bu, with 1,000,000 bu inspected yesterday. The market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.

Canadian Grain Reduced. Corn showed a little weakness early, but rallied on the strength in wheat, and there was also buying on the reports from the west saying Canadian wheat was in good shape. The market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.

December Oats Strong. Oats were influenced by other grains, and closed with a slight advance. The market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.

Big Gains in Products. Substantial gains were noted in provisions, and there was a general advance in all lines. The market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.

Rye at Record Price. Rye was at a record price, reaching a new high level. The market was strong during the remainder of the day, closing 1/4c up. A little flurry in December wheat was noted. An advance to 11.25c, the highest point on the crop, was followed by a reaction.
